COVID-19: BUSINESS UNUSUAL

Due to a strong first 60 days of the first quarter, the Metro Phoenix office market delivered another positive quarter as net absorption closed at 310,280 square feet. Class A developments continued to enter the market, and large national tenants were still flocking to the Valley until COVID-19 affected our daily lives. Office Investment sales and lease activity in Q1 dropped compared to the previous quarter's milestone due to the uncertain future.

443,340 square feet of office space in four buildings was delivered in the quarter highlighted by The Watermark, Phase I. The Class A spec office building in the Tempe submarket has already leased 170,000 square feet to Opendoor and WeWork. The second largest delivery came from Orsett's, The Reserve at San Tan, a 78,826 square foot spec office building in the Chandler submarket. Just over 2.5 million square feet is still under construction with Tempe barely leading the way at 669,991 square feet followed by the Scottsdale Airpark at 650,499 square feet. 50% of all under construction space is pre-leased.

Vacancy rates have not changed significantly over the last three quarters ending at 16.2%. Class A vacancy rates dropped to 15.1% from 15.3%. Asking rates rose $0.56 from Q4 to Q1 2020 to $25.74 PSF. The continued rise of average asking rates can be pointed to the quality of new deliveries to the Phoenix market. Nationwide's Cavasson still remains as the largest office project under construction at 460,000 square feet. Phase I is on track to be delivered in Q4 2020.

Fountainhead Corporate Park (2) fetched the highest price of the first quarter at $61,500,000 ($204.90 PSF). The 300,193 square foot office project was purchased by JLL Income Property Trust and sold by Harbert Management Corporation in the Tempe submarket. Northridge Capital sold Canyon Corporate Plaza to Taconic Capital Advisors for $27,000,000, the second largest sale of the quarter in the I-17 submarket.

Amazon signed the largest lease of the first quarter with 93,000 square feet at One Hundred Mill in Tempe. Zip Recruiter signed the second largest lease of the quarter by taking 89,889 square feet at Allred 40 located in the Sky Harbor area. The 2020 Office market will undoubtedly be affected by COVID-19. To what extent, time will tell us.
